Pairing Comments This cigar will hold up to many bold flavors but I like the contrast of cleaning the palate with sparkling water or champagne... it is so distinctive and rich that I don't want to obfuscate its flavors...

Final Thoughts You could probably write a book about the uniqueness of this cigar; its unique flare to a 56 rg near the foot and then taper to a 52; the totally flat cap which is easily cut by a knife, finger nail or punch; the unforgiving richness and full body; the adventurous use of Pennsylvania Green River One Sucker in its filler; etc.... This cigar is not for the faint of heart or palate but it is a must try if you like bold flavor...
